

Maurice D. Lynch

Maurice D. Lynch is a graduate of Specs Howard School of Broadcast Arts in Southfield, MI where he obtained a Video Production degree. While in corporate America, he held prestigious Audio/Visual Management positions. He also helped produced various Television programs for companies such as Ford and Comcast Cable. As a result, he has been in the field of Video Production for over 8 years.

Pursuing his lifelong dream of becoming a screenwriter and producer, Maurice began writing screenplays at the age of 16. Since then he has written over 8 screenplays, and produced several television programs. In the summer of 2006, he completed his first full-length featured film entitled "Blaze: The Truth Through Hip-Hop".

In the continuous aim to produce a high standard of feature-length, commercial independent films, Maurice along with his wife Dornique "Nicki" Lynch, launched Righteous Entertainment. R.E. is the premier production company specializing in writing and producing quality films that are pure entertainment for all. Focused on producing family oriented films, Righteous Entertainment feeds the hunger of a fading genre.

Righteous Entertainment films and scripts have garnered national attention from various media outlets including newspaper, television, and radio. In addition to being featured at film festivals in Atlanta GA, & New York NY, his latest feature film release "Blaze: The Truth Through Hip Hop", has been used as a catalyst in various panel discussion across the nation to bring awareness to the more positive side of the Hip Hop. Most recently his feature script, "Katrina", won the Black Hollywood Education & Resources Center Screenwriting Competition in Los Angeles, California.

Maurice D. Lynch
Screenwriter, Producer, Entrepreneur

Dubbed as the "Contributor", Maurice has been instrumental in providing assistance to aspiring entrepreneurs in building, managing, and promoting their businesses in the arts and entertainment industry. His heart desire is to see Positive Hip Hop artist eating off of their gift and spreading their messages through their music. He wants to see Positive Hip Hop videos in heavy rotation online and on major music television stations.

Driven by this desire, Maurice is known for his weekly blog giving exposure to the "Other Side of Hip Hop". Entitled "Dope Artists of the Week", the blog promotes artists who present messages in their music in contradiction to the negative aspects currently portrayed in Hip Hop today. He also co-hosts a weekly radio show entitled "RessurWreck Radio", which also interviews and promotes positive Hip Hop artists.

Maurice lives with his wife in Sarasota, FL.
